1. Student Philanthropists Making a Difference

Keanna Lai is a grade 7 student at Armstrong Elementary School who has been focusing her efforts on helping people living in the Vancouver Downtown Eastside (DTE) community. She is a member of Plenty of Plates, a food security organization that provides food to members of the DTE community. She is also a member of the DTE's food security committee and is responsible for preparing, cooking, and serving members of the DTE some delicious meals.

In January of last year, Keanna initiated "The Promise Project" at Armstrong Elementary School. She is currently working on submitting the project to the Vancouver Downtown Eastside Community Foundation.
